Te Ritorito 2017

Towards whānau, hapū and iwi wellbeing

Two-day forum: 3-4 April 2017
Pipitea Marae, Wellington

Te Puni Kōkiri
REALISING MĀORI POTENTIAL

superu

REGISTER NOW

Location: Pipitea Marae, 55-59 Thorndon Quay, Wellington

DAY ONE - Monday 3 April 2017

Session One: Learning from the past

8.30	Registrations
9.00	Mihi whakatau
9.20	Opening address	Emeritus Professor Sir Mason Durie
9.40	Te Puni Kōkiri and Superu	Michelle Hippolite, Clare Ward
9.50	Keynote address. The Treaty of Waitangi and whānau, hapū and iwi wellbeing	Justice Joe Williams
10.15	Measures in Māori development: Māori data and data about Māori, the context for, and development of, the Māori Statistics Framework	Whetu Wereta
10.35	FACILITATED DISCUSSION BETWEEN THE SPEAKERS
10.50	MORNING TEA

Session Two: Framing the frameworks: how and why do we measure whānau wellbeing?

11.20	The importance and purpose of frameworks in the development of relevant data for whānau wellbeing research and development	Len Cook
11.35	Superu whānau wellbeing work programme and the Whānau Rangatiratanga Frameworks	Kahukore Baker
11.55	Whānau Ora Outcomes Framework Purpose, development and measures of whānau outcomes	To be confirmed
12.15	Independent Māori Statutory Board's Framework for Tāmaki Makaurau	Dr James Hudson
12.35	Address from the Minister for Whānau Ora and Minister for Māori Development	Hon Te Ururoa Flavell

12.45	LUNCH
1.30	Oranga Tamariki: The transformative potential of Māori principled wellbeing frameworks	Dr Moana Eruera and Dr Leland Ruwhiu
1.45	Treasury: Māori Living Standards Framework	Atawhai Tibble
1.55	Office of the Children's Commissioner: Mana Mokopuna Framework.	Awhina Buchanan and Linda Nolan

DRAFT

2.05	WORKSHOPS TO FOLLOW FRAMEWORKS SESSION

Session Three: Whānau data and measuring whānau wellbeing

2.35	Statistics New Zealand	Liz MacPherson
2.55	Te Kupenga: the opportunities and challenges in measuring whānau wellbeing	Andrew Sporle
3.15	AFTERNOON TEA
3.45	The role of Māori land and employment in whānau and hapū wellbeing	Ben Dalton
4.15-4.45	PANEL DISCUSSION

Te Ritorito 2017 dinner Venue: Te Wharewaka o Pōneke Time: 6.30pm	Guest speaker: Helen Leahy, Chief Executive, Te Pūtahitanga o Te Waipounamu

DAY TWO - Tuesday 4 April 2017

Session One: Implementing whānau hapū and iwi wellbeing – what works?

8.45	TEA AND COFFEE ON ARRIVAL
9.00	Keynote address. Whānau wellbeing: past, present and future	Dame Tariana Turia
9.25	Whānau Ora Iwi Partnerships	Richard Steedman and Amohia Boulton
9.45	Operationalising Whānau Ora in the Workplace	Nancy Tuaine
10.05	MORNING TEA
10.20	Te Pūtahitanga o Te Waipounamu: Implementing and developing Whānau Ora in the South Island	Team presentation
10.40	Te Pou Matakana: Implementing and developing Whānau Ora in the North Island	Awerangi Tamihere
11.00	Whānau Ora: Holistic Services at the Flaxroots	Frana Chase
11.20 11.45	'What works' with Māori?	Dr Kathie Irwin
12.00	LUNCH

Session Two: Where to from here?

12.45	Keynote address: Understanding Indigenous Data Sovereignty: Opportunities and challenges for whānau, hapū and iwi wellbeing	Te Mana Raraunga: Dr Tahu Kukutai
1.10	Iwi-specific outcomes, data access and informed investment	To be confirmed
2.10	Responsive policy and programme interventions	Vyletta Arago-Kemp and Bev Hong
2.30	Bringing it all together: Identifying future issues and challenges	Emeritus Professor Sir Mason Durie
2.50	WORKSHOPS AND AFTERNOON TEA
3.30-4	CLOSING PANEL DISCUSSION

DRAFT