

Evidence to Action Conference 2017

19 June 2017 | Join us for lively discussions about what works!

What works: when evidence becomes action

Provisional programme

8.00	Registrations open (tea and coffee available)
9.00	Session One: Setting The Scene
	Mihi Clare Ward, Chief Executive of Superu Keynote speaker: Dr Sarah Morton, Director of What Works Scotland and Co-Director (Knowledge Exchange) at the Centre for Research on Families and Relationships, Edinburgh Morning tea
10.45	Session Two: Using Evidence In Decision-Making
	Dr Monique Faleafa, Chief Executive of Le Va Prof Stuart McNaughton, Departmental Science Advisor, Ministry of Education Eru Lyndon, Regional Commissioner, Northland, Ministry for Social Development Lunch
13.15	Session Three: Joining The Dots
	Keynote speaker: Karen Field, CEO of drummond street services, Melbourne Breakout session Afternoon tea
15.30	Session Four: When Evidence Leads To Action
	Panel discussion Len Cook, Families Commissioner Poroporoaki