

Superu Children and Families Research Fund – Application and contract delivery process

The research will start from the date on which data access is enabled by the University of Auckland eResearch Centre. The contract initiation date will precede this date.

If peer review leads to change in analysis then revised output may be resubmitted to DAC.

